We do hereby authorize and appoint our trusty and well beloved subject Martin Richardson to be our Farmer General for all that part of our Kingdom called Ireland to have and to hold all the said perquisites and emoluments heretofore attached to the said agreement; we have the greater pleasure in so doing from the great skill and good judgment exercised by him in the management of our Farm at Windsor and trust this removal will open a wider field of science and discovery.

Dear Sir,

Having taken the management of the "Eastern Counties Fire Office" for England & Wales I beg to inform you that I have resigned my appointment.
